

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1860.

Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, January 26, 1860.

FRANCKE.—Miss J. A. Owings, & W. Thompson, J. D. and J. C. Rice, of this city, were at the Louie, Monday.

We are indebted to Miss Thomas, Household of Arkansas, for a copy of her speech at Helena in November last.

Fair Day.—The Griffin was fined, five dollars by the recorder yesterday for fair day.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. Le Grand B. Cushing gave his last entertainment in this city yesterday. His home is again extended southward.

Lake Days.—We are indebted to Mr. J. C. Kasey, the well known news agent at the lower wharf, for St. Louis papers in advance of his arrival.

To Owners of Real Estate.—Mr. C. H. Smith, of the firm of Frost & Smith, will pay a liberal price for small, improved land, or even water lots, in the river. We invite attention to their early arrival.

The Merchant's Dispatch.—Capt. Larry H. Gould has been appointed to the command of the Mississippi River Patrol Line, will recruit men for all freedmen, and will go to all railroads in the Union.

CITY FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—This excellent company again presents its annual statement for the inspection of its partners and the public, agreeable to the requirements of the law. The premiums are represented by Mr. J. M. Brewster & Co., of Chancery, the senior member of this celebrated manufacturing firm at present in the city, who are entitled to a great part of the business.

Old Ry. Wagon Master.—Memphis Daily News has a few hours of that fine seven o'clock whisky, which they wish to sell to those engaged. It is particularly recommended in large diseases, and is highly appreciated, also.

The New Mexican Theatre.—The attractions this evening in this new theatre will enthrall Rory O'More and Uncle Tom's Cabin. The programs entice one of the very best hills of events that have been offered until Mr. Gorham's engagement, and his coming.

Police News.—During the absence of Major East, yesterday, in his house Mayor Baugh presided in the Recruit's court. No less than twenty-six cases were disposed of, and the amount of $100 was assessed, $50 of which was paid. Eleven additional cases were to be tried.

Watson's.—John Watson, of the firm of Watson & King, who has been in camp several days at the charge of Captain John Dugay, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Watson, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Brown's.—John Brown, a follower of the bassed madam, deliberately threw a missile into Jas. F. Peeler's head, who was standing in front of the advertising column. He was taken to the hospital, and was in good condition.

Sherman.—The arrival of the major yesterday, who sent him to the electric gang for long terms of banishment and three days.

Silversmiths.—Me. W. H. Oliver postmaster at Eureka, Mo., has placed as under his care a sum of money belonging to his subscribers to our weekly at his office. We have little more room on our subscription books left, so those who desire our paper may make application to us, which will be made to the editor.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—Two arrests were made yesterday at the auction room of Messer, Dopp & Co., on Saturday next. The premises were sold with the understanding that many of the articles of furniture would be sold at a low price.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—Two arrests were made yesterday at the auction room of Messer, Dopp & Co., on Saturday next. The premises were sold with the understanding that many of the articles of furniture would be sold at a low price.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.

Wright's.—John Wright, of the firm of Wright & King, who has been in camp for two weeks, was examined before Capt. Hill yesterday upon the charges. Wright, it appears, did not know what was paid in for fees for trial. Ray admitted he was, and was fully exonerated.